

START

Duty of Care

As part of our safeguarding policy, START has a duty of care to report any concerns about the wellbeing or safety of our members to relevant services. This also includes any information given to us which implies a risk to children/young people.